Gil Bernhard, CPA, is a partner with CohnReznick and is based in our New York office. Gil concentrates on healthcare audit, financial management, and reimbursement issues. His clients include Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs), behavioral healthcare organizations, AIDS/HIV agencies, healthcare trade associations, and other related not-for-profit and for-profit health corporations. In addition, as a member of our Not-for-Profit and Education Industry Practice with more than 25 years of experience in public accounting, Gil has broad capabilities in Government Auditing Standards and Federal Single Audit under the Uniform Guidance (formerly OMB Circular A-133). Gil also consults on internal controls and accounting systems for health centers and other not-for-profit healthcare corporations.

Gil has given testimony at Medicaid administrative hearings, and has served as an expert witness in federal court in a case involving Medicaid reimbursement. As part of his financial management services for healthcare clients, Gil supervises and reviews the preparation of specialized cost reports specific to ambulatory care facilities reimbursement and of client financial reports required for filing with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (i.e., UDS, FSR) and other government agencies.

Gil has frequently lectured before the National Association of Community Health Centers and state primary care associations on healthcare finance and reporting requirements for community health centers. He was published in the "Adapting the Chart of Accounts to Community Health Centers," chapter in Chart of Accounts for Health Care Organizations, Center for Research in Ambulatory Healthcare Administration, 1999.

He is licensed as a certified public accountant in New York and Florida.
